THE BILL MAY BE VETOED.

THE STATES DEFENSIBLE.

SPEECH OF SENATOR GALLINGER, WHO ADDRESSES THE SENATE.

The Reduction of the Gold-Bearing Currency of Different States Condemned—Congressional Committees—The Australian Ballot—The Constitutional Amendment—Appropriations for the Enforcement of Laws and Justice—Protection to the Navy to Maintain.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 2.—[Special.]—A great crowd came to hear Senator Gallinger speak in favor of his bill providing for the admission of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana and Washington. Mr. Gallinger opened with his usual clearness and force of argument. He said that the bill was in accordance with the platforms of both political parties. It was not to be participated in by those who favored free coinage. The Republican party was pledged to the support of the bill, and the Democratic party was pledged to it by the terms of the Chicago platform. The Republicans had always been in favor of the admission of new States when it came before Congress. The Democrats had been opposed to it

Charles Francis Adams as a Figurehead—Petition to Rob the Shareholders and Bad Practices of a Construction Corporation—A Jim Fisk Farce and a Few Old Tools About Successor Legislation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 6.—[Special to The New York World.]—Immediately upon the Pacific publication, Jan. 31, of the letter of the expenditures of the Central Pacific—"Leland Fund," as it is termed by a late officer of that corporation, Charles Francis Adams, the quiet President of Union Pacific, addressed a letter to J. W. Throckmorton, Chairman of the Committee on Pacific Railroads, under date of Jan. 31, in which will be found the following extraordinary statements:

"The company does not [illegible] control of the affairs which may be referred, it will be nothing to protect or avoid any . . . So far as I have been able to discover there is nothing connected with the affairs or the history which I suppose and the country does not know or cannot learn from the present record."

This is a bold fact!

Under the subhead, "(1) Congress Its Secret Investigation," of the publication, "The Pacific Lobby," in the World of Jan. 31, '87, an appropriation of $50,000 by the Union Pacific March 3, 1881, through C. H. Sludge, Thomas A. Scott, and J. S. Gutcheil, was disclosed. The opinion of the members of the House of Representatives, Messrs. Wilson, Hutchinson, Hunt and Hiscock, chairman and the appointment as an "(Legal Adviser" [illegible] and recommended proceedings not to [illegible] Mr. James Hunt's opinion was also quoted to show that he considered that to avoid legislation the bill of complaint was important, but the court could not "does not do." A note from Sludge to Scott was also quoted to show that the interests for the Government had this ground. The fees and the opinions were given for the purpose of showing that the United States had legislative rights in these cases [illegible] disposal of and also to the legal [illegible] of the same kind by Stanford, [illegible] Crocker and other Central Pacific officials.

The Rich and Poorer Who Pray for Peace Again—A Rich and Modern Magnate Who Is Not to Smile and the Daughter Who Thinks to Wander—The Cards Advance and Are Not Over Many Days to Stay—The Way of Living Profusion and Lack in the City.

From the records given below it appears that a week the people of this county $1,000 per month in food to the poor people who are not cared for in whole or in part by public charity, or the report of the Cook County Commissioners of charities. Many of them are foreigners, who, as a rule, receive, under the Chicago system, more than they are entitled to. In the summer they work in their native countries for a few and they would be satisfied to work at $1 per day. But while they are employed the county feeds them. There are families, consisting of a husband, a wife and children, who have been in this country for years, and who have never been known to work at all. They are supported by the county.
